

TED ALEXANDER

THE VOICE OF THE MONARCHS

Ted Alexander is a longtime sports broadcaster best known as the “Voice of the Monarchs” for Old Dominion University. He began his career as on-air talent at WTKR-TV and has since become a key figure in ODU athletics. Since 2007, Alexander has provided play-by-play commentary for the Old Dominion Monarchs, becoming a recognizable voice in college sports.

COLLEGE LIFE

Ted Alexander attended Bethany College, where he built the foundation for his career in broadcasting and communication.

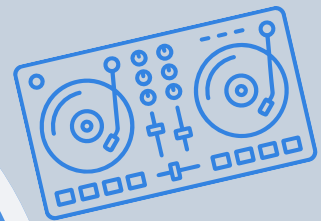

- Attended from 1977–1981
- Earned a Bachelor’s degree in Communication & Media Studies
- Member of Kappa Alpha Order fraternity
- Gained early experience and interest in media and broadcasting

WHY BROADCASTING

Ted Alexander got his start in broadcasting through radio, where he worked as a disc jockey (DJ) in several states including West Virginia, Georgia, and Maryland.

- Started as a radio DJ (disc jockey)
- Worked in West Virginia, Georgia, and Maryland
- Learned how to speak on-air and engage listeners
- Built confidence using his voice and microphone skills
- Began in radio first, then later moved into sports broadcasting

WTKR BROADCASTING

Ted Alexander spent the majority of his broadcasting career at WTKR-TV, where he worked in sports media and on-air broadcasting.

- 1981–2016 | On-Air Talent
- Worked as a sports broadcaster for over 30 years, covering local and regional sports.
- Built experience in live reporting, sports highlights, and commentary

- Developed strong on-air communication skills that helped shape his future in play-by-play announcing
- Became a well-known sports media personality in the Hampton Roads area

OLD DOMINION MONARCHS

Ted Alexander is best known today as the “Voice of the Monarchs” for Old Dominion University, where he continues to call games for the Old Dominion Monarchs.

- Provides play-by-play commentary for ODU football and basketball
- Recognized as a key voice in Monarchs athletics
- Known for bringing energy and detail to live game broadcasts
- Continues to be a familiar voice for ODU fans today

EST.2007

T.Alexander

“ A man that has attened every ODU home and away football game since the program resurrect in 2009 from FCS to FBS and the fist bowl game in the Bahamas to the most recent”

–Nathan Epstein ( Wavy10 TV)